Miss Myrtle Pulliam Wins

In young ladies popularity contest which was conducted by the Phoenix Gazette, closed June 4, and among those who won in their respective districts we find the name of Miss Myrtle Pulliam, daughter of Sheriff Thomas E. Pulliam of Flagstaff. Miss Myrtle was informed by wire that she was the winner in this district, and on the 27th of July she will leave on the trip which has been awarded her. She will visit San Diego, Los Angeles, Frisco and other points of interest on the coast. As her health has not been good the past winter this trip will be about the finest thing that she could enjoy just now. Miss Myrtle and her friends are rejoicing over her good fortune. The Sun congratulates her on her success.

Williams Forfeits Game

The Williams Warriors swooped down on the Skylight City last Sunday, determined to appropriate the scalps of our own stalwart defenders, but fate (or the umpire) decreed otherwise.

Before the largest attendance of the season, both teams were decidedly "off." Loose fielding, ragged base running, and corner lot coaching (on both sides,) marred what promised to be a battle of the giants. The stick work was on a parity with the fielding, which accounts for the comparatively small score. Ted Arce, third sacker, was easily the star club artist of the Warriors with a home run and three-bagger to his credit; and Ballagh, left gardener, made three running catches that were really sensational. Our own "Sy Segmour" Boyd, though a little off form, garnered himself a bouquet of eleven strike-outs as against eight gathered by Young, the Williams pitcher. Wilkinson, our new catcher, played a good game and made a most favorable impression on the fans. He will undoubtedly strengthen the team materially, as he seems to have a goodly quota
